- Heart Crew Covenants - small ones to hand out and a large one for everyone to sign.
- Nametags (host should write them out ahead of time)

Contact Your Group in Advance:

- Contact all members one week before the first meeting to welcome them to the group and inform them of the location and time of your group, as well as any entrees to bring to dinner. (Check your rosters)

3 ESSENTIAL PARTS OF YOUR EVENING AGENDA

#1 Welcome, mingle and talk while you eat

Leadership tip – Studies show that the first 7 seconds a person spends in a room can make or break the remainder of their experience in that room.

- People greeted when they arrive
- Drinks available when people arrive
- Upbeat music playing
- House cleaned, phone off if possible

#2 Think through the uniqueness of your first group discussion

GOING OVER CONTENT IS CRUCIAL

- Let people know your meeting is going to start in about 5 minutes
- Why it is unique - getting to know each other, setting expectations

A) Sharing

- Refer to the homework - Take time to do a few of the “getting to know you” questions
- Sharing guidelines - Explain the purpose of sharing exercises: Getting to know one another casually (new groups) or reacquainting with each other (continuing groups)
- Note to returning leaders - feel free to adapt the sharing exercises based on the number of new members. All groups are encouraged to do some of the “getting to know you” questions.

B) Worship (optional)

C) THE COVENANT - SET THE EXPECTATIONS AND VISION (see Covenant Leader's Guide)

Note: Digging Deeper #1 and Taking it Home from this week's homework will set up your time to go over the Covenant

- Everything rises and falls on how this is communicated
- Distribute the Covenant
- Go over Covenant (see Leader's Guide)
- MAKE PLANS FOR YOUR SOCIAL

D) Prayer For New crews or crews with new people ... Introduce the idea of topical prayer

- Everyone participates
- Brief, one topic at a time
- Pray as many times as you want

#3 Know that your dessert conversations are just as important as your meeting discussions

Leadership tip - Never underestimate the significance of the time after the meeting. It is key to connect with people and find out more what people are all about.
